About Us

Due to our team's extensive collaboration of talent, we deliver over 200 yr's of "ground up" construction and project management experience that spans from excavation and utilities through cast in place and superstructure top out. The GFH Enterprise, Inc prides itself in being a "Single Source Provider" for projects of any size. Our experience in working closely with the Architects and Engineers of record allows us to Value Engineer and become intimate with a project from its Design Development stage through its completion. Whether we have performed as the primary or sub contractor, our team's general contracting experience as well as construction management expertise, allows us to provide the detail and efficiency not often found in most Service Disabled companies.

We listen and focus on our client's demands and needs and are committed to superior customer relations. Realizing our greatest asset is our ability to communicate effectively and promptly, the GFH Enterprise, Inc. is always focused on the procurement of productive solution as opposed to getting bound up in the problem. This focus on successful completion of the mission could only be performed by a company whose respective department heads and principals have superior requisite experience in every discipline of construction.
